Eagle Newsletter-May 2010

FROM THE FOXES:

Hi everyone, wow where did the year go? First we would like to thank and praise our God, for His Son, our Lord, Jesus Christ and by the power of the Holy Spirit for giving each of us the mercy, grace and strength to fulfill the call on our lives.

We want to say thanks to all who helped with Eagle over the past year, The Eagle Board and Treasurer, those who prayed and fasted with the Eagles Nest, The Enrichment Staff, teachers, helpers, clean up crews, Eagle Activity Coordinators, Library Committee, Eagle Newsletter Editor, Mom's Night Out Coordinator, Graduation Staff, Annual Staff, those who work with the Cookbooks, Book Club News, Adopt A Solider, Spring Formal, all the fundraisers, meals and offerings for those in need, Creation Night Staff and helpers, Field Day Staff, Field Trip Coordinator, Eagle 4-H Scholarship Committee. A special thanks to Pinecrest and Farmington Baptist Church's.

Paul taught in the book of Romans that our different gifts and abilities should make us love and depend more on one another, and therefore should make us more united as one body in Christ.

Romans 12:4-5 (NKJV)

"For as we have many members in one body, but all the members do not have the same function, so we, being many, are one body in Christ, and individually members of one another."

So "Body of Christ" we say "Well done and thank you all that helped in anyway, may you have a blessed break and we look forward to seeing you all soon. As always call us anytime you need us."

Love,
K & K

Book Club News

Thank you to everyone who ordered from Scholastic this year! We had orders totaling $700 for 106 items by 13 families. Our group had a Bonus Point balance of 11,731 points that may be used to purchase items for our group. Happy reading everyone! See you fall semester!!

Library News

The Eagle Lending Library will be open on May 25th from 10am to 1pm. Now is a great time to prepare for the next school year. Get your books early for the best selection. We would also encourage families to promptly return any library books that they are finished with so others may use them. For more info, please contact a library committee member.

Adopt-A-Soldier News

Praise God for the safe return of our adopted soldiers! Please continue to keep all service members and their families in your prayers. They chose to serve to protect our freedoms! If any families in the group have a service member you would like for us to adopt, please contact Diane Miller at (662) 287-2484.

Cookbooks!

Attention! We only have 22 copies of the cookbook left! The cookbook contains over 330 tried and true recipes from some wonderful cooks. The cookbooks are only $10 each and all proceeds go directly to the Eagle Scholarship Program. To purchase your copy, contact Diane Miller at (662) 287-2484.

Mom 2 Mom

I can't believe summer is almost here. I'm ready how about you? My kids are ready. Keeping their minds on school is near impossible and my college kids will be coming home a couple of weeks before we get through at home so I will have to work extra hard to keep the little kid's minds on school. "Its not fair" will be their battle cry.

As I sit here writing my last article for this school year I'm reflecting on the year. What a year it has been. We gave up our positions as presidents of EAGLE and I took on a new responsibility: EAGLE's NEST and ministering to our families. I really never dreamed that there would be so many needs in our group as there has been this year. Along with the needs many of you have been there to help minister to those needs. In February I asked for those whose husbands were without work to let us know who they were so we could pray specifically during that month. Many of those prayers were heard and several of those we were praying for found jobs during the month. I got a surprise one Tuesday when someone gave me some cards that someone else had given them. Each card had a name of one family we were praying for that month and I was asked to deliver them. What a privilege to be able to do that and to see the expression on the faces of those people when they opened the cards and found money in them. There were looks of shock and tears of joy. I still don't know who that person is but I pray that God will bless that family and their generosity to those who are struggling.

Also we have many requests prayer for various issues: sickness, injuries, and salvation. You name it we have prayed for it. We have prayed for Richard Shook and his kidney stones most of the year. At one point during this year Richard became very sick. After receiving an urgent phone call from Darlene I posted a prayer request. Darlene testified to me that soon after I posted that request Richard's condition improved which was puzzling to the doctors. Darlene wasn't puzzled; she knew that God was answering prayers.

We were saddened to hear that Bro. Warren Jones' son-in-law was killed in Afghanistan. Bro. Warren has taught chess to our homeschoolers for many years and we have grown to love and appreciate him. Because of your generosity we were able to give him and his family a love offering. You are such a generous people.

One of our young people had a very serious car accident and we have been able to pray for him and his family. He is recuperating and improving and will hopefully recover completely.

We have had the opportunity to take meals to many of our members this year. I've said for a long time that we have the best cooks around which was proven by our cookbook.

I could go on and on about all the times our group has come through for each other this year but I must end this somewhere.

I will end with this last reflection and a verse. You have given and served all year and I've been concerned about tapping everybody out. I don't want people to run when they see me coming or delete my messages because I'm asking for help again. You proved to me that there is no end to your sacrificial giving at creation night. A need was presented and you gave to a family in our group who was going through a difficult time. Because of your love offering to this family they were able to get caught up on some bills and buy some food. They were overwhelmed.

I'm reminded of the verse in Galatians 6:2 "Bear one another's burdens and so fulfill the law of Christ." You have certainly been obedient to God this year. I say it all the time and I'll say it again; we have the best group of people around.

I hope each of you have a great summer. Please keep the prayer requests coming as you need to and we will keep approaching God's throne with those requests.

Until we meet again, don't forget to "walk worthy of the vocation to which you were called."

-Donna Miles
